Fools for Christ – Derek Finch

In 1980 Derek was a Shakespearean fool, playing the part of Costard in “Love’s Labours Lost”. Soon afterwards he met the Lord Jesus, and became a fool for Christ. Now known as Mr. Custard, he performs at evangelistic events as a Christian clown.

He will lead three entirely different creative sessions:-

“Bluff your way in clowning skills”

“Send in the clowns”

“Let us play”

Further details about the contents of each of these sessions will be found displayed within the creative space.

Please leave your dignity outside the door. Come in and rediscover your child within. Learn as you first used to, through creative play. There will be neither succeeding nor failing; only new experiences to be tasted and enjoyed for their own sakes, and added to the store of past experience that make you uniquely you.
